Avra Estiatorio Team Opening Anassa Taverna on May 31

The team behind Avra Estiatorio, along with Tim Pappas (formerly of Philippe) will roll out a new Greek spot, Anassa Taverna on May 31 in midtown east. Greece-born chef Nikos Carvelas is cooking such Mediterranean classics as a Greek salad, grilled lamb chops and a swordfish kebab. There's a raw bar, and daily specials that might include veal stew or slow-cooked pork shoulder. The bi-level space is meant to evoke the Greek seashore, with warm weathered colors and decorative jewelry that's also for sale.
